Notice to Applicant

Dear Applicant:

By applying to the Richmond Police Department for a permit to carry a concealed pistol or revolver, you are exercising your right under Rhode Island General Law, § 11-47-11. It is this statute which gives the Richmond Police Department the authority to administer this program in accordance with the law. It is important to remember that a permit to carry a concealed pistol or revolver does not authorize you to use the firearm. Such usage of a handgun is regulated by other provisions of Rhode Island law. Please read the enclosed policy regarding the issuance of a pistol or revolver permit. It is intended to serve as a guide to aid applicants in understanding the authority and responsibility of the licensing authority, which in this instance is the Richmond Police Department.

This application also contains information about Rhode Island General Laws that pertain to weapons, referred to as the Firearms Act. You must acknowledge that you are familiar with the provisions of the Firearms Act before you are granted a permit to carry a pistol or revolver. This application package does not include Federal Laws pertaining to firearms. Despite that, you are hereby informed that you must observe both Federal and Rhode Island laws. Federal law is respectively administered by Federal Agencies. For information relative to Federal regulations of firearms, you may contact the United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF).

The application itself must be filled out completely and truthfully. It is a crime to knowingly offer false information to obtain a permit to carry a pistol or revolver. Please read the instructions carefully and note that both first-time and renewal applicants must supply all information being requested by the Richmond Police Department at the time of application.

The submission of the application for a permit to carry a concealed pistol or revolver constitutes the commencement of a thorough process of review by the Richmond Police Department. The process of review shall include a personal interview of the applicant, a criminal background check, suitability assessment, may include interviews of references, neighbors and employers, and will ultimately culminate with a written response informing the applicant whether their request was approved or denied. If your request is denied, you may opt to submit an application to the Rhode Island Department of Attorney General, which is similarly authorized by Rhode Island General Law, under § 11-47-18, to accept applications and issue permits/licenses to carry concealed pistol/revolver. Furthermore, you may appeal a denial of your application to the Rhode Island court(s).

If your application is approved, you shall be notified in writing with instructions to respond in person to the Richmond Police Department in order to obtain the permit. Upon such issuance, please exercise your privilege to carry a concealed pistol or revolver in the State of Rhode Island responsibly, properly, and safely.

Sincerely, Chief Elwood M. Johnson, Jr Richmond Police Department

CONSIDERATIONS

In consideration of each individual application for a pistol permit, the Richmond Police Chief must determine whether or not the applicant has satisfied three (3) components of Rhode Island General Law, § 11-47-11, including (1) an age and residency requirement, (2) a reason requirement, and (3) a suitability requirement. The authorization to carry a loaded, concealed firearm in public is different from the right to purchase or possess a handgun in one's own home or business because, among other differences, a loaded and concealed firearm in untrained hands presents danger to the public and the applicant, so the Richmond Police must consider the potential risks to the public when processing such applications.

After assessing the below criteria and other relevant information, the Chief in his/her sole discretion shall grant or deny the pistol permit and may, when warranted, issue a pistol permit with restrictions in lieu of denial. The Richmond Police Chief shall, among other discretionary powers, consider the following criteria to limit or restrict the issuance or denial of a license or permit to carry a concealed pistol or revolver in assessing application along with ascertaining the following (if applicable):

- 1. The applicant is a person twenty-one (21) years of age or over having a bona fide residence or place of business within the Town of Richmond, or is a person twenty-one (21) years of age or over having a bona fide residence within the United States and a license or permit to carry a pistol or revolver concealed upon his or her person issued by the authorities of any other state or subdivision of the United States;
- 2. Demonstration of a specific "good reason to fear an injury to his or her person or property, or any other proper reason for carrying a pistol or revolver;"
- 3. The existence of alternative routines/conduct other than carrying a loaded firearm to decrease the danger(s) to life, limb, or property;
- 4. The existence of alternative means of protection available to the applicant other than the possession of a loaded firearm that will alleviate the risk to his or her person or property;
- 5. Demonstration through certification of the requisite skill, training, and ability to properly use a firearm in accordance with Rhode Island Laws;
- 6. The applicant presents an appropriate plan to properly secure the firearm so it does not fall into unauthorized possession of another;
- 7. The anticipated increase of risk harm that carrying a loaded firearm will pose to the applicant or public;
- 8. Whether the applicant has offered reliable information that persuades the Chief of Police that he or she will not use the firearm for any unlawful or improper purpose, and that he or she has not used a firearm for an unlawful or improper purpose in the past;
- The existence of past criminal, unlawful, dangerous or violent conduct of the applicant justifying the denial even if it is not sufficient to disqualify the applicant as a matter of law (prohibited conduct) from possessing a firearm;
- 10. Evidence that the applicant has been the subject or been issued a protective order pursuant to Chapters § 15-5, § 15-15, § 8-8.1 of the Rhode Island General Laws;

CONSIDERATIONS continued...

- 11. The applicant offers false, misleading, or erroneous information in their application;
- 12. The presence of any and all other factors deemed lawful and appropriate by the Richmond Police Chief that demonstrate and satisfy that the applicant is/is not a person suitable to possess and carry a loaded firearm in public.
